Subject: RE: Lakeshore x KPMG: Process & Controls transformation

Morning Jithin,

Our recommendation is to look at this engagement as a single, integrated piece of work across the three phases, as the outcomes of each phase are closely linked, and the overall impact is best realized when executed end-to-end.

That said, as you had requested, we are sharing below an indicative phase-wise split of the fees to support your internal discussions.

1. Phase 1 – Gap assessments – INR 16.5 lacs
2. Phase 2 – Updates to IFC RCMs & SOPs – INR 7 lacs
3. Phase 3 – Trainings, Action taken report & implementation roadmap – INR 3 lacs

Please note that this is provided purely for reference, and our proposal is designed and priced to deliver maximum value when taken up as a whole.

Happy to walk you through the rationale and practical benefits of this approach at your convenience.

Thank you.

Regards,

Nikhil Hatti | Director – Risk Advisory

Dear Jithin,

Thank you for this opportunity and meeting with us to discuss your expectations.

We are pleased to share the detailed proposal for Process & Controls transformation of the 5 domains captured in the RFP documents.

The document outlines:

1. Our value proposition: KPMG strong local presence at Kochi, deep sector knowledge led by a team that brings a mindset of long-term association and growth with you.
2. The customized approach split into three phases:

    a. Phase 1 (~6-8 weeks): Deep dive into the 5 domains where you will receive the gap reports along with practical recommendations (covering people, process & technologies)
    b. Phase 2 (~4 weeks): Refresh and update of the IFC RCMs and SOPs to incorporate the right mix of controls
    c. Phase 3 (~4 weeks): Gap remediation ensuring the agreed actions get implemented, long-term actions are provided as a roadmap and we train your teams.

3. We have included other key details around the practice profile, proposed a team with relevant Healthcare experience and professional fees.

Please let us know if you would like us to walk you through this proposal.

Look forward to your thoughts on the next steps. Thank you.
